And the said William Rawls being further interrogated to the interrogatories prescribed by the War Department says as follows being first duly sworn.

That he was born in North Carolina as the original rolls, that he does not recollect the year in which he was born. That he once had a record of his age, but it was burnt or lost during the Revolutionary War. That he was living in Bute District of South Carolina, when called into service, that shortly after the Revolutionary War he removed into Georgia into what was then Effingham & is now Screven County, where he lived until his removal into this County of Gadsden Territory of Florida in the year 1[illegible] where he now lives.

That in this first enlistment he served as a substitute, for his father John Rawls - a soldier in the Militia.
That of the Regular Officers with whom he served in the actions of the latter part of his service Capt. Thomas Posey
